COME TO A BAR MITZVAH APRIL 13

The entire Bat Yam Community is encouraged to worship at 10:30 a.m. on Shabbat morning, April 13, as Benjamin Usman comes to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah. Ben is the son of Bat Yam members Kate and Ethan Usman, who live in Charlotte, North Carolina, and the grandson of Donald Breiter and Deborah Gurman.

When the Usmans worshipped last spring at Bat Yam, they enjoyed the experience so much that they inquired about the possibility of celebrating Ben's Bar Mitzvah here. For the past six months, Ben and Rabbi Fuchs have studied together weekly, and Ben looks forward to sharing the fruits of his learning with our Bat Yam Community on April 13. Please join them!

OUR THANKS TO THE WONDERFUL MARCH 22 PURIM STORY PRESENTATION CAST...

Abbey Allison as Persian Purim Pianist; Pastor John H. Danner as King Ahasueras; Rabbi Stephen Fuchs as Hatach; Norma Kohn as Royal Violinist; Edina Lessack as Esther; Esther Pokedoff as Royal Violinist; Ying Przybyszewski as Vashti; Barry Roth as Vashti's attendant; Sally and Alan Sacks as Bigthan and Teresch; Cantor Murray Simon as Haman; and Benjamin Yokel as Mordecai.

JEWISH FEDERATION HOSTS HISTORICAL PROGRAM

Alan Isaacs and Debbie Sanford of The Jewish Federation of Lee and Charlotte Counties are hosting a program sponsored by the Jewish Historical Society of Southwest Florida at 2 p.m. on Sunday, April 14. The program, "The Timeline of Southwest Florida Jewish History," will take place in the Community Room of the Federation building, 9701 Commerce Center Court in Ft. Myers.

The format will include a discussion of the timeline beginning in the 1840's through the present, touching on all those individuals and circumstances that have allowed Judaism to develop and thrive in Southwest Florida. It will include a short video with highlights from interviews recently recorded with Richard Plager, Sanibel's former Chief of Police, who is over 90 years old and presently lives on Marco Island. Mr. Plager will be at the presentation.

There is no charge. To attend, please call the Jewish Historical Society of Southwest Florida at 833-JHS-SWFL (833-547-7935).

BON VOYAGE!!

Rabbi Fuchs and Pastor Danner of SCUCC will lead "Growing and Learning Together," an exciting trip to Israel from April 29 through May 10. The trip will feature visits to numerous historical sites, as well as an examination of Israel's place in the modern world. The cost of the trip is $3,070 plus airfare. The trip is sold out; however, a waiting list has been created. In the event of any cancellations, and if you wish to join the waiting list, please send your name, phone number, and email address with a $250 per person check (made out to Sanibel Congregational United Church of Christ and marked "Israel Trip") to Ms. Sandy Simmons, SCUCC, 2050 Periwinkle Way, Sanibel, FL 33957.

If you have any questions regarding the Israel trip, please contact Barry Roth at barryalanrothatlaw@gmail.com or via telephone at 239-313-9591 or Alan Lessack at allesack@sbcglobal.net or via telephone at 773-251-8862.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED TO SET UP SHABBAT SERVICES

Please contact Cheryl Fulmer at 732-780-2016 or Fulmer.Cheryl@gmail.com if you wish to take a turn setting up Friday night Shabbat services. The housekeeping tasks include turning on and off the lights; preparing the wine, kiddush cup, and Shabbat candles; and carrying the Torahs into the church sanctuary when services are held there. A brief period of cleanup after services concludes the duties.

RABBI FUCHS REFLECTS

More Jews will celebrate Passover, beginning on April 19 this year, than any other religious occasion during the year. Yet far too many do not understand the reasoning behind the rituals. To understand the Passover narrative in Exodus, we must view it as a war – a boxing match if you will – between gods. In one corner, we have the Egyptian god, Pharaoh. One worships Pharaoh, like any pagan god, by glorifying him with monuments, pyramids, sphinxes, and garrison cities. If slaves are needed to build these structures, so be it. If it is necessary to beat those slaves in order to keep them working or even kill some occasionally to send a message, that is fine, too. And if overpopulation becomes an issue (see the First Chapter of Exodus), simply throw their baby boys into the Nile.

Rabbi Dr. Stephen L. Fuchs

In the other corner, though, we have the one true God of the Hebrew Bible. God's highest goal is that we create a just, caring, and compassionate society. God wants us to treat one another with respect and dignity and not to steal, cheat, or lie. God has particular concern for the powerless in society: the widow, the orphan, the outsider, the abused, and the impoverished. The contrasting systems represented by Pharaoh and God cannot coexist peacefully.

Imagine the scene from many a Western movie in which the sheriff says to the bad guy, "This town ain't big enough for both of us," and a showdown ensues. Well, Exodus is a showdown between God and Pharaoh. Because it is our story, our God wins by redeeming us from slavery and bringing us to Mount Sinai, where God renews and expands with an entire people the sacred covenant God once made with just Abraham and his family.

In slavery our lives were hopeless. We lived in drudgery and oppression. Life had neither meaning nor purpose. Suddenly, God delivered us. Because of that, we freely choose how we will earn a living, how we will spend our leisure, and how or if we will worship. In short, we owe God a debt we can never repay.

Yet, we try. We try by performing acts of kindness, caring and compassion. Passover is not just about our past. It is also about the future we wish to shape, a future marked by justice and righteousness for all humanity.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is an honor to have been chosen to be your next president. In a way, like Simchat Torah, we are at the end of one cycle and the beginning of another. The past years under Alan Lessack's leadership have seen renewed vitality, an increase in membership, and greater involvement between our temple and our friends in the SCUCC. For me, personally, Alan has been an inspiring mentor and teacher, and above all, a good friend. He will be a hard act to follow, but I look forward to the challenge.

President Barry Fulmer

It's hard to believe, but twenty-eight years ago, while vacationing on Sanibel with our young son, Cheryl and I saw an ad in the local paper mentioning the start of a Jewish congregation on the island. We were here for only a few days and could not become involved then. Many years later, in 2011, when nearing retirement and having more time to spend on Sanibel, we decided to attend services at Bat Yam and were immediately welcomed by congregants. Wonderfully, this has marked our experience here ever since. I look forward to the continuation of the warm and welcoming atmosphere at Bat Yam that has helped the temple be such an inviting place, attracting new friends and visitors.

There are so many other qualities of Bat Yam that make it very special. We have members from a great variety of professional, business, and academic backgrounds and from diverse parts of the country and the world. I've always been impressed that our community respects the views and ideas of each and every one of its members even when there are differences among us. We value civility in our discourse. I welcome your ideas, involvement and support.

I want to thank Rabbi Fuchs for his inspiring leadership, outreach to the larger community, both on Sanibel and elsewhere in Southwest Florida, his active support for those who are less fortunate than so many of us, and the caring he has shown to those who have been ill and in need of comfort. Appreciation goes to Cantor Simon for his joyful chanting of prayers and songs on Shabbat, holidays, and other events. Last year, he presented a special program on famous cantors of the twentieth century. This year he brought together a wonderful musical extravaganza of amazing cantors and other musical performers. It can truly be said that the audience filled the sanctuary up to the rafters to enjoy the recent concert.

I would be remiss if I didn't also thank the generosity of June Rosner and the Leo Rosner Foundation for coming to our assistance by helping to fund various programs, including that for Shared Scholar, the recent cantors and a pastor concert, and security expenditures.

As I write this, our annual Passover Seder at the Community House organized by Annette Pacyga and Lois Lorsch is approaching. It will be a meaningful experience. The Israel trip led by Rabbi Fuchs and Pastor Danner will leave at the end of this month. We all wish those from our congregation and members of SCUCC a safe, educational, and inspiring journey. I know we look forward to hearing stories about their experiences after they return.

Your board and officers, along with dedicated volunteers and the financial backing of many congregants, have kept our temple, the Daughter of the Sea, chartered on a course over steady seas. Hazak, hazak, v'nithazek. Together may we be strong and strengthen each other in the years to come.

L'Shalom, Barry Fulmer

RABBI FUCHS AND PASTOR DANNER TO EXPLORE ISRAEL'S HISTORY

Wednesdays, April 10 & 17 at 10:00 a.m. (no evening classes) in Fellowship Hall

In the two-part course, "The History of Modern Israel," Rabbi Dr. Stephen L. Fuchs and the Rev. Dr. John H. Danner will explore the history of modern Israel. They'll offer an overview of the events of the 19th, 20th, and 21st centuries; the religious scene in Israel; and the basics of Israeli government. While the classes will provide an orientation for those traveling on the Bat Yam/SCUCC trip to Israel, it is open to all who would like to learn more about Israel and its history.

JOIN THE BAT YAM GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

In response to needs expressed by members of the congregation, Bat Yam has started a Grief Support Group. It meets the first Wednesday of each month from 7:00-8:30 p.m. in the SCUCC library. It is a lay group, so all group matters are determined by consensus. The group's dual goals are healing and companionship. Rabbi Fuchs is the facilitator. Please mark your calendars for April 3; dates thereafter TBD. Everyone is welcome. Please encourage those you feel could benefit to attend. For questions, contact Ellen Feingold, 302- 345-7187 or by email at ellenfeingold@gmail.com.

SAVE THESE DATES

The next Shared Scholar lecture will be on Sunday, January 26, 2020, with the Shared Scholar Seminar to follow on Monday January 27. The 2020 Shared Scholar will be Dr. Mary Evelyn Tucker. Watch for more details in future issues of Bat Yam Matters.

There will be bins outside SCUCC at the first Shabbat service of the month for donations for the joint Bat Yam and SCUCC Paper Goods Drive. Please donate toilet paper, paper towels, napkins, diapers, etc. to F.I S.H.

FROM OUR CANTOR

Passover recalls firm memories lasting the length of time. We remember and celebrate Passover through special songs and the time-worn melodies that we associate with this spring festival of freedom. The Haggadah is replete with many lively traditional songs that jog our collective “memory banks” as we remember past Seders.

These wonderful songs bring a special spirit and joy to the celebration of Passover – I dare say more than any other Jewish observance. Studies have shown that Passover is the most widely observed of all of the Jewish celebrations in the entire Jewish liturgical calendar – even more so than the High Holy Days!

Cantor Murray Simon

We look forward to our Bat Yam congregational Seder on Friday, April 19, performing all the rites and singing all the songs that make this such a wonderful holiday celebration for us. As you know, the telling of the story of Passover is the main educational objective of the Seder. What better way to accomplish this than with the interaction of songs and symbols?

Most important, the Passover Seder affords us an opportunity to be together as families – an intergenerational experience that seems to be a rare commodity these days in our fast-paced and far-flung lives. As we approach the Passover season of 5779, may our wonderful singing Seder create new memories for ourselves and our families. Chagsameyach!

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE RIDES TO AND FROM SHABBAT SERVICES?

I am trying to organize transportation from Ft. Myers to SCUCC for Bat Yam Shabbat Friday evening services beginning from Rosh Hashanah of 2019. We need to gather information in order to explore our options. This service may or may not be underwritten by Bat Yam, but without your input, nothing can happen. We're examining the possibility of transporting people from Shell Point, Cypress Cove, Lexington, Heritage Pointe, and anywhere else a congregant needs to be picked up. Please respond to the following questions:

1. I am interested and need to be picked up at...

2. I enjoy going to services...

Every week

Once or twice a month

INTERESTED IN A BAT YAM CANASTA GROUP?

We are organizing a canasta group. Since there are many versions of canasta, it's best to say from the beginning that we would bring a set of rules for everyone, and if they're acceptable or mostly acceptable, we'd play with that set of easily followed rules, which of course we could modify according to group consensus. We would play in volunteer members' homes. We would like to get a sense of who may be interested in playing. Please reply to ellenfeingold@gmail.com answering the following:

1. Who is/are interested in playing (please supply your email address)?
2. Do you want to play once every week or once every two weeks?
3. Which evening (7:00-9:30) of the week suits you best and which second best?

WHERE IN THE WORLD IS RABBI SOIFER?

February ended with a week that was jam-packed with seminars and teacher trainings. I also finally connected with the English professor at my nearby university extension and helped there with some translation classes. I have a week-long English Conversation class with first-year University students coming up.

All that work was followed by a visit from two friends from Germany. With them I was able to do some touristy traveling, including transiting the Panama Canal and hanging out on the Caribbean beaches of Bocas del Toro in the far west end of the country. And now it's "back to school" as a new semester begins. Can't wait to see my cute kids!
